Mass: __________________________

Bumstead, Joseph
carded

Contents

Liner

Liner Massachusetts

Joseph Bramstead

of Wellesley in the State of Mass.

who was a Drummer in the company commanded by Captain of the said company
by Capt. Torce in the said line for 1 year.

Inscribed on the Roll of Mass.
at the rate of 2/4 dollars per annum to commence on the 24th day of March, 1831.

Certificate of Pension issued the 19th day of Dec.
1832 and paid to George

Arrears to 24th of Dec. 1832 $66
Semimonthly allowance ending 24th of Dec. 22

$ 88

Revolutionary Claim,
Act June 7, 1832.

Recorded by 76. McCallum, Cler.
Communion of the Province of New Jersey for the

May 14, 1710

The subscriber, William House, gentleman and seaman, in the County of Gloucester, in the Province of New Jersey, in the month of May, 1710, being present at the Court of Session held in the said County, the said Court, after due consideration, ordered the said William House to appear before the Court of Session, in the said County, on the first day of June, 1710, to show cause why he should not be committed to the debtors' prison in the said County, for his failure to appear before the Court of Session, in the said County, on the first day of June, 1710, as ordered by the said Court of Session, in the said County.

The subscriber, William House, gentleman and seaman, in the County of Gloucester, in the Province of New Jersey, in the month of May, 1710, being present at the Court of Session held in the said County, the said Court, after due consideration, ordered the said William House to appear before the Court of Session, in the said County, on the first day of June, 1710, to show cause why he should not be committed to the debtors' prison in the said County, for his failure to appear before the Court of Session, in the said County, on the first day of June, 1710, as ordered by the said Court of Session, in the said County.

The subscriber, William House, gentleman and seaman, in the County of Gloucester, in the Province of New Jersey, in the month of May, 1710, being present at the Court of Session held in the said County, the said Court, after due consideration, ordered the said William House to appear before the Court of Session, in the said County, on the first day of June, 1710, to show cause why he should not be committed to the debtors' prison in the said County, for his failure to appear before the Court of Session, in the said County, on the first day of June, 1710, as ordered by the said Court of Session, in the said County.

The subscriber, William House, gentleman and seaman, in the County of Gloucester, in the Province of New Jersey, in the month of May, 1710, being present at the Court of Session held in the said County, the said Court, after due consideration, ordered the said William House to appear before the Court of Session, in the said County, on the first day of June, 1710, to show cause why he should not be committed to the debtors' prison in the said County, for his failure to appear before the Court of Session, in the said County, on the first day of June, 1710, as ordered by the said Court of Session, in the said County.

The subscriber, William House, gentleman and seaman, in the County of Gloucester, in the Province of New Jersey, in the month of May, 1710, being present at the Court of Session held in the said County, the said Court, after due consideration, ordered the said William House to appear before the Court of Session, in the said County, on the first day of June, 1710, to show cause why he should not be committed to the debtors' prison in the said County, for his failure to appear before the Court of Session, in the said County, on the first day of June, 1710, as ordered by the said Court of Session, in the said County.

The subscriber, William House, gentleman and seaman, in the County of Gloucester, in the Province of New Jersey, in the month of May, 1710, being present at the Court of Session held in the said County, the said Court, after due consideration, ordered the said William House to appear before the Court of Session, in the said County, on the first day of June, 1710, to show cause why he should not be committed to the debtors' prison in the said County, for his failure to appear before the Court of Session, in the said County, on the first day of June, 1710, as ordered by the said Court of Session, in the said County.

The subscriber, William House, gentleman and seaman, in the County of Gloucester, in the Province of New Jersey, in the month of May, 1710, being present at the Court of Session held in the said County, the said Court, after due consideration, ordered the said William House to appear before the Court of Session, in the said County, on the first day of June, 1710, to show cause why he should not be committed to the debtors' prison in the said County, for his failure to appear before the Court of Session, in the said County, on the first day of June, 1710, as ordered by the said Court of Session, in the said County.

The subscriber, William House, gentleman and seaman, in the County of Gloucester, in the Province of New Jersey, in the month of May, 1710, being present at the Court of Session held in the said County, the said Court, after due consideration, ordered the said William House to appear before the Court of Session, in the said County, on the first day of June, 1710, to show cause why he should not be committed to the debtors' prison in the said County, for his failure to appear before the Court of Session, in the said County, on the first day of June, 1710, as ordered by the said Court of Session, in the said County.

The subscriber, William House, gentleman and seaman, in the County of Gloucester, in the Province of New Jersey, in the month of May, 1710, being present at the Court of Session held in the said County, the said Court, after due consideration, ordered the said William House to appear before the Court of Session, in the said County, on the first day of June, 1710, to show cause why he should not be committed to the debtors' prison in the said County, for his failure to appear before the Court of Session, in the said County, on the first day of June, 1710, as ordered by the said Court of Session, in the said County.

The subscriber, William House, gentleman and seaman, in the County of Gloucester, in the Province of New Jersey, in the month of May, 1710, being present at the Court of Session held in the said County, the said Court, after due consideration, ordered the said William House to appear before the Court of Session, in the said County, on the first day of June, 1710, to show cause why he should not be committed to the debtors' prison in the said County, for his failure to appear before the Court of Session, in the said County, on the first day of June, 1710, as ordered by the said Court of Session, in the said County.

The subscriber, William House, gentleman and seaman, in the County of Gloucester, in the Province of New Jersey, in the month of May, 1710, being present at the Court of Session held in the said County, the said Court, after due consideration, ordered the said William House to appear before the Court of Session, in the said County, on the first day of June, 1710, to show cause why he should not be committed to the debtors' prison in the said County, for his failure to appear before the Court of Session, in the said County, on the first day of June, 1710, as ordered by the said Court of Session, in the said County.

The subscriber, William House, gentleman and seaman, in the County of Gloucester, in the Province of New Jersey, in the month of May, 1710, being present at the Court of Session held in the said County, the said Court, after due consideration, ordered the said William House to appear before the Court of Session, in the said County, on the first day of June, 1710, to show cause why he should not be committed to the debtors' prison in the said County, for his failure to appear before the Court of Session, in the said County, on the first day of June, 1710, as ordered by the said Court of Session, in the said County.

The subscriber, William House, gentleman and seaman, in the County of Gloucester, in the Province of New Jersey, in the month of May, 1710, being present at the Court of Session held in the said County, the said Court, after due consideration, ordered the said William House to appear before the Court of Session, in the said County, on the first day of June, 1710, to show cause why he should not be committed to the debtors' prison in the said County, for his failure to appear before the Court of Session, in the said County, on the first day of June, 1710, as ordered by the said Court of Session, in the said County.

The subscriber, William House, gentleman and seaman, in the County of Gloucester, in the Province of New Jersey, in the month of May, 1710, being present at the Court of Session held in the said County, the said Court, after due consideration, ordered the said William House to appear before the Court of Session, in the said County, on the first day of June, 1710, to show cause why he should not be committed to the debtors' prison in the said County, for his failure to appear before the Court of Session, in the said County, on the first day of June, 1710, as ordered by the said Court of Session, in the said County.

The subscriber, William House, gentleman and seaman, in the County of Gloucester, in the Province of New Jersey, in the month of May, 1710, being present at the Court of Session held in the said County, the said Court, after due consideration, ordered the said William House to appear before the Court of Session, in the said County, on the first day of June, 1710, to show cause why he should not be committed to the debtors' prison in the said County, for his failure to appear before the Court of Session, in the said County, on the first day of June, 1710, as ordered by the said Court of Session, in the said County.

The subscriber, William House, gentleman and seaman, in the County of Gloucester, in the Province of New Jersey, in the month of May, 1710, being present at the Court of Session held in the said County, the said Court, after due consideration, ordered the said William House to appear before the Court of Session, in the said County, on the first day of June, 1710, to show cause why he should not be committed to the debtors' prison in the said County, for his failure to appear before the Court of Session, in the said County, on the first day of June, 1710, as ordered by the said Court of Session, in the said County.

The subscriber, William House, gentleman and seaman, in the County of Gloucester, in the Province of New Jersey, in the month of May, 1710, being present at the Court of Session held in the said County, the said Court, after due consideration, ordered the said William House to appear before the Court of Session, in the said County, on the first day of June, 1710, to show cause why he should not be committed to the debtors' prison in the said County, for his failure to appear before the Court of Session, in the said County, on the first day of June, 1710, as ordered by the said Court of Session, in the said County.

The subscriber, William House, gentleman and seaman, in the County of Gloucester, in the Province of New Jersey, in the month of May, 1710, being present at the Court of Session held in the said County, the said Court, after due consideration, ordered the said William House to appear before the Court of Session, in the said County, on the first day of June, 1710, to show cause why he should not be committed to the debtors' prison in the said County, for his failure to appear before the Court of Session, in the said County, on the first day of June, 1710, as ordered by the said Court of Session, in the said County.
That he was born in Clinton County, December 26, in the year 1795. That the name of his father is entirely unknown, and is not recorded in the county records. His mother is supposed to have been a Miss Davis, and his ancestry is unknown. His early education was obtained at a private school near his home.

The deed relinquishes any claim relative to a certain amount of real estate, and declares that his name is not on the list of the assessors of any state.

I, J. W. Williams, Clerk of the Court of Common Pleas, do hereby certify that the foregoing contains the original proceedings of the Court in the matter of the application of Robert Bremner for a warrant. In testimony whereof I have hereunto set my hand and affixed the seal of said Court this eight day of August, A.D. 1832.

J. W. Williams
Brief in the case of Joseph Burnside, in the State of Middletown, in the State of Middletown (Act 7 June, 1832.)

1. Was the declaration made before a Court or a Judge? State Court.

2. If before a Judge, does it appear that the applicant is disabled by bodily infirmity?

3. How old is he? 66

4. State his service, as directed in the form annexed.

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Period</th>
<th>Duration of Service</th>
<th>Rank</th>
<th>Names of General and Field Officers under whom he served</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>In 1776 (Sept)</td>
<td>3 Months</td>
<td>As a Private</td>
<td>Dr. Woodbridge at South Hadley, gen. in Light Infantry, Gen. Shepherd, and Co.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>In 1779 (Dec)</td>
<td>3 Days</td>
<td>As a Private</td>
<td>Dr. Woodbridge at South Hadley, gen. in Light Infantry, Gen. Shepherd, and Co.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>In 1780 (July)</td>
<td>6 Days</td>
<td>As a Private</td>
<td>Dr. Woodbridge at South Hadley, gen. in Light Infantry, Gen. Shepherd, and Co.</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

5. In what battles was he engaged?

6. Where did he reside when he entered the service? at South Hadley, the last town.

7. Is his statement supported by living witnesses, by documentary proof, by traditional evidence, by incidental evidence, or by the rolls? Living witnesses, except to the service.

8. Are the papers defective as to form or authentication? and if so, in what respect? No certificate by a clergyman.

I certify that the foregoing statement and the answers agree with the evidence in the case above mentioned.

H. Ward, Examining Clerk.
In reply to your request of ____________, received for a statement of the military history of Joseph Burnstead, a soldier of the REVOLUTIONARY WAR, you will find below the desired information as contained in his (or his widow's) application for pension on file in this Bureau.

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Dates of Enlistment or Appointment</th>
<th>Length of Service</th>
<th>Rank</th>
<th>Officers Under Whom Service Was Rendered</th>
<th>State</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>Immediately</td>
<td>3 mos.</td>
<td>Drum</td>
<td>Captain Abijah Gangly</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Jan. 4, 1778</td>
<td>1 mos.</td>
<td>Drum</td>
<td></td>
<td></td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

Battles engaged in, None; states.

Residence of soldier at enlistment, Del State.

Date of application for pension, Aug. 8, 1833. This claim was allowed.

Residence at date of application, Wilbraham, Hampden Co., Mass.

Age at date of application, June 26, Union St., Boston, Mass. in 1776.

Remarks: There is no family data on file.

Respectfully,

Commissioner.